

Cathie Marsh Centre for Census and Survey Research
Social Statistics
Institute for Social Change
Joint Seminar Series 2011

Understanding Individual and Social Change

Every Tuesday
All Welcome

3.45pm Tea and Coffee
4.00-5.15pm Seminar

Room 5.206
University Place
The University of Manchester
Oxford Road, M13 9PL

For up-to-date programme information see:
www.ccsr.ac.uk/seminars
www.manchester.ac.uk/socialchange/seminars

The seminar series is held every Tuesday, all welcome

January

25 Rufus Pollock
University of Cambridge
Open Data: What, Why, How!

8 Peter Taylor-Gooby
University of Kent
The Psychology of 'Nudge' and Social Cohesion

February

1 Hanspeter Kriesi
University of Zurich
Restructuring the National Political Space in Western Europe: The supply side of national electoral politics

15 Pauline Cote
University Laval
Religion on the Public Agenda: the role of experts, politicians and advocacy groups in comparative perspective

8 Vani Borooah
University of Ulster
Social Identity and Educational Attainment:
The role of Gender, Caste and Religion in Explaining Differences between Children in India

22 Jackie Scott
Queen's College Cambridge
Gender Inequalities in the UK

15 Tak Wing Chan
University of Oxford
Intergenerational Exchange in the UK

29 Mick Couper
University of Michigan
Adaptive Designs for Managing Survey
Nonresponse

22 Lucinda Platt
University of Sussex ISER
Child Poverty Dynamics across Ethnic Groups in the UK

April

5 Jouni Kuha
London School of Economics
The Role of Education in Social Mobility - Path analysis for discrete variables

12 Hilde Coffe
University of Utrecht
Parental Characteristics and Intergenerational
Transmission of Party Preference in Multiparty
Systems: Evidence from Switzerland

March

1 Rachel Gibson
University of Manchester
E-participation: Modes and Measurement